Dear Mr. President and Mr. Speaker:

Pursuant to State Government Article §7-512.1, the Department of Housing and Community Development shall report to the General Assembly on the Low-Income Weatherization Component of the Electric Universal Service Program. In fulfilment of this mandate, attached please find the Electric Universal Service Program Report dated as of April 11, 2016 providing information in accordance with Section 2-1246 of the State Government Article.

In 2016, $0 of the Low-Income Weatherization Component of the Electric Universal Service Program (EUSP) was transferred to the Department of Housing and Community Development.

Zero households in zero political jurisdictions were served. Zero weatherization agencies participated in weatherization activities funded by EUSP. The average cost per unit was $0.

If you have any questions on this or any other matter, please contact me at (301) 429-7796 or by email at Matthew.Heckles@maryland.gov at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Matthew Heckles
