Overview

The correctional side of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services operations includes all Maryland State prisons. Dedicated professionals oversee 24 prisons and pre-release centers whose mission is to protect the public by incarcerating sentenced criminals.

Institutional security is a key priority of the Department for both staff and the inmate population.

A commitment to returning offenders to society with the tools necessary to keep them from their former life of crime is evident in the vast array of job skill opportunities, educational programming, psychological and health sessions, and drug treatment.

Maryland Correctional Enterprises (MCE), the prison industry arm of corrections and one of the largest prison industries in the nation by sales, also offers an employment setting that mirrors the private sector.

Public Safety Works gives inmates the chance to pay society back, while simultaneously learning valuable employment skills and intangible but important traits such as a patience, compassion, and community appreciation.

The Department also provides crucial victim services to those whose lives have been impacted by offenders under correctional supervision.

MCTC is one of the largest correctional institutions in the State of Maryland , an Administrative Security Level Facility housing adult male offenders consisting of multiple security levels (medium /minimum/pre-release , as well as temporarily housing maximum security inmates). The main institution was built in 1966 with additional housing units added totaling 8 in all. MCTC has been the site of numerous construction projects in the past few years. The upgrades and construction projects at MCTC , which have allowed for the expansion of programs and opportunities available to the inmate population in the past , are now being geared towards improving the security , energy efficiency, and living conditions of the structures in which the inmate population is housed. The facility as a whole is in good operating condition .

MCTC continues to focus on providing inmates with Re-entry initiatives as well as programming and educational opportunities ; MCTC team member s continue to develop and innovate ways to carry out and accomplish the mission and vision of the institution. Part of MCTC 's mission is to reduce the recidivism rate and to give our inmate population the vital tools needed to be successful citizens once released back into society

MCTC functions as the regional transportation hub by providing temporary housing for parole retakes, inmates going to medical and court appointments , as well as inmates on layover going to other facilities throughout the State. MCTC is challenged by safely housing inmates with security statuses ranging from pre-release to maximum security. Factoring that with transportation hub services, intake, parole retake and transitional services and the overall operational inmate movement in and out of MCTC equates to a monthly average of 700-900 inmates entering and exiting MCTC.

MCTC serves as a reception center for local inmate intakes from Washington , Frederick , Montgomery , Carroll, Allegheny , and Garrett Counties, which requires staff training in FAST 10 and fingerprinting on the Livescan system as it relates to OCMS and structural modification to the building .

MCTC currently manages the largest Pre-Release Facility in the state. The Harold E. Donnell (HED) Building currently houses 390 minimum and pre-release inmates. HED provides 19 inmate Road Crews for both the State Highway Administration and the Washington County Roads Department. Additionally , we employ roughly 35 inmates within a Work Release Program throughout many local restaurants and private businesses. Inmates earn valuable skills and begin the process of investing in their return to the community . MCTC 's Road Crews save Maryland taxpayers money and keep Maryland Highways clean and beautiful. MCTC's HED Complex has a reputation for excellence and keeping inmates focused on successful re-entry.

Western Correctional Institution

Western Correctional Institution

Cumberland, Maryland

Security Level : Maximum
Positions: 460
Average Population: 1610
Operating Cost: $59,547,417

Western Correctional Institution manages maximum, medium, minimum and a few pre-release and pre-trial status inmates. Our mission is to protect public safety by ensuring a safe and secure environment for staff and the inmate population.

The Western Correctional Institution provides a variety of programming opportunities in an effort to promote a successful re-entry into society. We are also charged with managing a large segment of violence prone Security Threat Groups that have committed violent acts towards staff and other inmates at various facilities throughout the State. Several committees and programs, including Reduction in Violence, Risk Management, etc., continue to receive information and analyze episodes of violence with a goal of reducing these incidents throughout the facility. Inmates are evaluated upon entry into the facility and managed in the least restrictive housing that is possible with "safety and security" being paramount in this management.

Job opportunities for wheelchair bound inmates include an expanded sewing shop, positions in the Dietary Department, Library, the toy project, and a wheelchair repair shop. The recreation program includes activities designed and focused on the needs of the wheelchair bound inmates.

The sewing shop resizes jeans. Hundreds of oversized (4-X and larger) pairs of pants are re-cut to smaller, more useful, and standard sizes. The sewing shop continues to repair and refurbish inmate bed mattresses and makes colorful pillowcases in support of a national charity providing the pillowcases to children hospitalized with life threatening diseases.

The Horticulture Program graduates inmates with University of Maryland "Master Gardener" certificates. The Horticulture program has provided hundreds of flowering plants, shrubs, and trees to the local communities. The Horticulture program grows tree seedlings for replanting within Allegany and Garrett Counties and is currently reintroducing the American Chestnut tree seedlings for study by Frostburg State University.
