The Honorable Michael E. Busch
Speaker
Maryland House of Delegates
H-101 State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear President Miller and Speaker Busch:

In accordance with Education Article §15-106.8, the Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC) presents the information below on nonresident tuition exemptions for qualified children of undocumented immigrants. The following data are an aggregation of submissions provided by all public postsecondary institutions in the State.

Term	Public Community Colleges		Public Four-Year Institutions
	Total Number of Students	Total Student Savings	Total Number of Students	Total Student Savings
Summer 2014	137	$105,490.00	10	$17,502.00
Fall 2014	403	$777,753.00	56	$467,446.00
Winter 2014-2015	23	$12,974.00	6	$7,854.00
Spring 2015	350	$632,914.00	62	$521,813.00
TOTALS		$1,529,131.00		$1,014,615.00

Annual student totals are not provided, as individual recipients may have been enrolled across multiple terms during the year. Student headcount data are aggregated at the term level to protect student privacy.

In total, students from 23 public postsecondary institutions (15 community colleges and 8 public four-year institutions) benefited from the nonresident tuition exemption authorized under the Article. Total student savings equaled $2,543,746.00. The remaining 6 public postsecondary institutions indicated that no students benefited from the tuition exemption.

- At the 15 Maryland community colleges, the largest number of students who benefited from the nonresident tuition exemption occurred during the Fall 2014 semester, with 403 total students. Over the 2014-2015 reporting period, this exemption resulted in a total student savings of $1,529,131.00.
- At the eight Maryland four-year public institutions, the largest number of students who benefitted from the nonresident tuition exemption occurred during the Spring 2015 semester, with 62 total students. Over the 2014-2015 reporting period, this exemption resulted in a total student savings of $1,014,615.00.
